

Below is a page from the WAGGS AIDS Badge Curriculum showing that Girl Scouts can develop a “role-play in which a couple negotiates using a condom when they have sex.” The text has been highlighted in yellow to make it easier to see. The curriculum can be accessed online here.

AIDS Badge Curriculum level 3

2

provide to prevent unplanned pregnancy and sexually transmitted diseases. Invite other female members of your family and the community to this meeting. If possible, arrange a tour of a clinic for your group.

3. Are there agencies in your community that help people with drug and alcohol problems? Make a list of these agencies. Contact one of the agencies and ask what services they provide. Share this information with your group. Ask a health care provider from one of these agencies to speak at a group meeting about the problems of drug and alcohol use in your community and strategies to prevent drug and alcohol abuse. Invite other members of your community to this meeting.
4. Write a series of short dramas or role-plays that deal with setting sexual limits in relationships. For example, a friend of yours tells you her boyfriend is pressuring her to have sex. He threatens to end the relationship if she will not have sex with him. Your girlfriend wants to wait until she is married to have sex. Develop a role-play in which your girlfriend clearly tells her boyfriend she wants to wait to have sex and how she feels about his pressure tactics. Develop another role-play in which a couple negotiates using a condom when they have sex. Ask your group to do the role-play with you.
5. Visit one of the places in your community where young women can go for health care related to pregnancy prevention and treatment of sexually transmitted diseases. Invite a counsellor from this agency to speak at one of your group meetings and ask her to