

Below are two screen shots showing a page on the WAGGGS website. The first screen shot shows WAGGGS' demand for abortion rights, the second screen shot shows the same page after the abortion language was scrubbed. The relevant text has been highlighted in yellow to make it easier to see. The current page can be accessed online here.

The screenshot shows a browser window with the URL www.wagggsworld.org/en/CSW54/Day6. The page title is "Young people advocating for sexual and reproductive rights". The main content includes a photo of young people, a quote, and a list of demands. The following text is highlighted in yellow:

- Accessible, affordable and safe abortions should be made part of the minimum packages of sexual and reproductive health services.

The quote reads: "We demand access to comprehensive sexuality information, services and supplies for all young people. We need it today - and today needed to be yesterday."

The screenshot shows the same page after the abortion language has been removed. The URL is www.wagggsworld.org/en/CSW54/Day6. The page title is "Day 6 - 5th March". The main content includes a photo of young people, a quote, and a list of demands. The following text is highlighted in yellow:

- Sexual and reproductive health services should, as a minimum, be accessible, affordable and safe.

The quote reads: "We demand access to comprehensive sexuality information, services and supplies for all young people. We need it today - and today needed to be yesterday."