

Below is a screen shot of an entry on the official Girl Scout blog showing that Emily Cain, a member of the U.S. House of Representatives who has a record of voting for Planned Parenthood's abortion issues 100 percent of the time, was honored by Girl Scouts of Maine. The relevant text has been highlighted to make it easier to see. The page can be accessed online here.

The screenshot shows a web browser window displaying a blog post on the Girl Scouts of America website. The browser's address bar shows the URL: blog.girlscouts.org/2011/09/maine-representative-emily-cain-honored.html. The page features a green header with the 'gsblog' logo and a search bar. The main content area is white with a green border. The post is dated 'THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 22, 2011' and has the title 'Maine Representative Emily Cain Honored by Girl Scouts'. The text of the post is as follows:

Maine's WABI TV 5 reports that The Girl Scouts of Maine gave House Minority Leader Emily Cain the Juliette Award at a luncheon on Thursday. The award is named after the Girl Scouts' founder, Juliette Gordon Law. It's bestowed upon a woman who demonstrates leadership and determination.

Representative Cain says she was honored to be recognized by an organization that meant so much to her.

"When I look back at my childhood, the Girl Scouts is really the first place I can remember in an all girl environment, devoid of cliques from school or socioeconomic stratification and classes, that you really were there just to learn how to become just the best person you can be," said Cain.

She says the lessons and values she learned as a Girl Scout are ones she carries with her to this day.
